

Fighting for the Faith during Renaissance and Reformation

Late Medieval and Early Modern Crusading, 1400-1650

November Symposium 2007

Monday 12 November

09.45-10.00: Introduction

Janus Møller Jensen, University of Southern Denmark

10.00-10.40: From Mobilisation to Memory: Crusading 1450-1650

Norman Housley, University of Leicester

10.40-11.20: Jerusalem in the Papal Letters of the 15th century: Goal, Justification or an Instrument of Enlistment for the Crusading plans?

Benjamin Weber, Université de Toulouse – Le Mirail

11.20-11.30: Break

11.30-12.10: Hospitaller Writings on the Fight against the Turk: Selling the Crusades to Western Europe

Theresa M. Vann, Hill Museum & Manuscript Library

12.10-13.20: Lunch

13.20-14.00: The Importance of the Byzantine Qur'an Translations for the anti-Islamic Polemics
Christian Høgel, University of Southern Denmark

14.00-14.40: Byzantine Expatriate Diplomats in the Planning of Crusades towards the End of the Fifteenth Century
John H. Lind, University of Southern Denmark

14.40-15.10: Coffee

15.40-16.20: Crusade against Christian Neighbours. Boniface IX's Crusading Bull of 1401 to Queen Margaret I of the Kalmar Union
Kurt Villads Jensen, University of Southern Denmark

16.20-17.00: Hussites' View of Crusading and their Idea of Holy war
Pavel Soukup, Charles University in Prague

17.00-17.30: General discussion

Tuesday 13 November

09.00-09.40: The Shield of the Kalmar Union to the East. Sweden and the Crusade against the Russians, 1495-1497
Tore Nyberg, University of Southern Denmark

09.40-10.20: Les Rois Catholiques et la Guerre de Grenade d'après le témoignage d'Alonso de Palencia
Daniel Baloup, Université de Toulouse – Le Mirail

10.20-10.40: Break

10.40-11.20: Crusading and Astrological Tracts
Claudius Sieber-Lehmann, University of Basel

12.00-13.10: Lunch

13.10-14.00: The Ottomans and the Earlier Tudors (1485-1558)
Greg O'Malley, Independent scholar

14.00-14.40: Protestant Crusading: Christian III of Denmark, Protestantism and the War against the Turks 1536-1559
Janus Møller Jensen, University of Southern Denmark

14.40-15.10: Coffee

15.10-16.00: "The Ultimate Perversion" – the End of the Crusader State in Prussia (the Treaty of Kraków 1525)
Darius van Guttner Sporzynsky, University of Melbourne

16.00-16.40: A Lutheran appropriation of the First Crusade: The Danish historian Anders Sørensen Vedel's apology for editing Robert the Monk
Karen Skovgaard-Petersen, The Royal Library in Copenhagen

16.40-17.30: General discussion

12-13 November 2007
Lecture-hall O100

The Nordic Centre of Medieval Studies and
The Medieval Centre, University of Southern Denmark, Odense

